Dear Partners and Brethren in Christ,

Thank you so much for your prayers and support. For with your faithfulness, we are able to do great and mighty things for the Lord. Not just that but also focus and dedicate our lives in doing all that we can to share the gospel in the Philippines.

It has been an eventful year! Me and Amillia are about to be married on the 4th of November. I am really excited and happy to have her in my life as she not just made my life 100x happier but also enabled me to be a more effective missionary. With us working together, we will be able to reach couples and families with God's word as it will be easier for us to relate to them in that regard. We will still be effective in reaching young people as we are still close enough to their age to be able to relate to them. We want to leverage the younger years of our lives to do as much as we can for HIS glory. Thank you so much for your prayers and support. We have already raised 20% of support and we want to thank you for continually praying for us.

It also has been a fruitful year for the CFBC Family in the Philippines. I don't think there has been a week where our churches in the Philippines did not have a gathering. Either they were going village to village and conducting bible studies, going school to school with our campus ministry, doing youth fellowships in the park to encourage young people in their walk with Christ. It is amazing to see all of them on fire serving Jesus Christ.

Thank you for your faithfulness because without it, we wouldn't be here so thank you all so much for your support and praying for us. We will keep ya'll updated and send pictures of our humble wedding. I am really excited to have her as my wife and I can't wait to serve God together in Baguio City, Philippines.

Your Missionaries to the Philippines,

Ian Ofrecio and Amillia Robinson
